PART 1 | VISION STATEMENT

Keelagher Okey Associates Ltd operates and will continue to operate fair and equitable methods and procedures, in accordance with the appropriate current Codes of Practice, to ensure that all its employees and prospective employees are treated fairly and are not subjected to unfair discrimination.

It is important that this policy of equal opportunities in employment is accepted and fully understood by Directors and Staff to ensure that all employees and applicants for vacancies within the Practice are treated equally regardless of their religious or political affiliation, gender, gender identification, sexual orientation, marital status, age, disability, race, ethnic or national origin. Awareness of this policy is promoted as a matter of course.

The Practice fully supports the need for systematic and objective appraisal of its practises to ensure that its Policy of Equal Opportunity and its associated procedures are rigorously applied to all its services.

In seeking to achieve this vision, Keelagher Okey Associates Ltd will strive to:

- Encourage equality of opportunity for all people and actively promote good relations.
- Ensure that all staff are made aware of this policy at Induction and are asked to read it and ask any questions before signing to indicate their acceptance of the policy.
- Ensure that any future changes to the policy are communicated to all staff in a timely manner and encourage staff to come forward if they have any queries regarding the changes.
- Eliminate any conditions, procedures and individual behaviour that can lead to discrimination even where there was no intent to discriminate, with particular regard to race, gender, disability, sexuality, age, religion, and belief.

We also aim to:

- Offer services fairly to all people, ensuring that anyone in contact with the organization is treated with respect.
- Comply with all legislation dealing with discrimination and the promotion of equality, following the codes of practice issued to support this legislation.
- Observe the Equality and Human Rights Commission's Codes of Practice for Employment, Equal Pay, and Services, Public Functions and Associations.
- Ensure all employment policies, procedures, guidelines, and circulars reflect and reinforce our commitment to equality.

- Ensure that this policy is applied effectively to all our recruitment, training, promotion, discipline, and dismissal procedures.
- Ensure mechanisms are in place for responding to complaints of discrimination and harassment from employees and/or Clients.
- Make this policy known to all employees and make employees aware that victimization, discrimination, and harassment are disciplinary offences.
- Operate procurement practices and partnership arrangements that ensure others commissioned to provide services for Keelagher Okey Associates Ltd have similar policies that cover equal opportunities.
- Regularly review the Equal Opportunities policy on an annual basis and/or when relevant new legislation comes into practice.

PART 2 | RESPONSIBILITY

Overall responsibility for the implementation of the policy lies with the Managing Director; Mr. Derek Bradshaw.

PART 3 | RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION

Keelagher Okey Associates Ltd will strive to:

- Ensure that all employees are recruited and promoted based on ability and other objective relevant criteria.
- Be committed to equality of opportunity for all people and protect against all forms of discrimination, with a particular regard to gender, gender identity, race, disability, religion and belief, age, and sexuality.
- Ensure that it communicates job opportunities to all sections of the community. We will scrutinize the recruitment process to ensure that we do not discriminate against or discourage applications from any section of the community.
- Use open recruitment methods wherever possible, including Job Centre, Newspaper Advertisement, Online Advertisement and Careers Services.

- Ensure that all its employees who are part of the recruitment selection panel are trained on equalities issues.
- Use appropriate legislation as a framework for action to support the recruitment process in a positive way.
- Collect and use recruitment information to support a fair and effective recruitment process. This includes monitoring of the numbers of job applicants from different gender, disability, and ethnic groups.

PART 4 | TRAINING AND ORGANISATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Keelagher Okey Associates Ltd will:

- Seek to ensure that all employees are developed by the provision of appropriate and accessible learning opportunities in line with organizational needs.
- Provide training that complies with our Equality Policy.
- Include equalities training as part of its induction programme.
- Include equalities training as part of its management development programme.
- Provide equalities awareness training as part of its corporate training and organizational development programme.

PART 5 | MONITORING AND EVALUATION

Keelagher Okey Associates Ltd will:

- Specifically monitor recruitment, promotion, and training opportunities and take up of training, pay, grievance, disciplinary and exit from employment.
- Monitor its performance against national best value performance indicators in respect of all equality issues.
- Continue to review its monitoring processes to comply with changes in legislation.

PART 6 | DISCRIMINATION

Keelagher Okey Associates Ltd does not tolerate any form of discrimination, bullying, victimization, or harassment.

Persons that believe that they have suffered any form of discrimination, bullying, victimisation or harassment are entitled to raise the matter through the agreed procedures. All complaints of discrimination will be dealt with seriously, promptly and confidentially.

Every effort will be made to ensure that persons who make complaints will not be victimised. Any complaint of victimisation will be dealt with seriously, promptly and confidentially. Victimisation will result in disciplinary action and may warrant dismissal.

Complaints from members of the public will be dealt with under the Company's disciplinary procedures.
